

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## PREFATORY NOTE

This list has been prepared in response to requests received from time to time. It has hitherto been distributed in typewritten form, but to meet demands it is now reduced to print. It is in no sense exhaustive, even of the resources of the Library, but is intended to serve as a ready-to-hand guide to accessible material.

Current statistical publications, etc.—The “Statistical abstract of the United Kingdom” gives tabulated statistics of the imports and exports of iron and steel, giving quantities and declared values, also the quantities and value of pig iron purchased in the United Kingdom. The “Accounts relating to trade and navigation of the United Kingdom,” published annually, give the quantities and value of specific manufactures of iron and steel, with statement of the exports to the different countries. The “Accounts relating to the trade and commerce of certain foreign countries and British possessions” show quantities and value of iron and steel exports and imports of the principal countries of the world. These are all publications of the British board of trade, and are issued as Parliamentary documents.

Annual publications dealing exclusively with statistics of iron and steel: American iron and steel association; British iron trade association. See also Periodicals noted below.

The statistics of production and manufactures and exports of iron and steel for Germany are given in tabular form in the “Statistisches Jahrbuch für das Deutsche Reichs.” This work also contains quotations of prices of pig iron. More detailed statistics of exports and imports are given in the “Vierteljahrshefte zur Statistik des Deutschen Reichs” and in “Statistik des Deutschen Reichs: Auswärtiger Handel; Der Verkehr mit den einzelnen Ländern” (annual), published by the Imperial statistical office.

Prices.—Current prices may be found among others in the “Iron Age,” “Iron Trade Circular,” “Iron and Coal Trades Review,” “The Statist,” “The Economist” (London). The import and export prices of iron and steel products are given in the “Statistical Abstract for the United Kingdom.” The “Report of wholesale and retail prices in the United Kingdom,” published by the Board of trade, 1903, gives “ascertained” prices of iron and steel products for some items covering the years 1854 to 1902; for others, shorter periods in most cases going back to 1870. Another Board of trade report containing material relating to prices is "Tables showing for each of the years 1900-1905 the estimated value of imports into the United Kingdom, and exports from the United Kingdom of articles of British and Irish production at the prices prevailing in 1900."

German Steel Kartell, etc.—The "Commercial Intelligence," London, has printed at frequent intervals letters giving a survey of operations in iron and steel in Germany. Proceedings of the Iron and Steel Kartell in Germany are reported monthly in Conrad's "Jahrbücher für Nationalökonomie und Statistik," under "Kartellwesen." An extended investigation of this Iron and Steel Kartell was made under the direction of the German Interior Department and published in two volumes, entitled "Kontradiktorische Verhandlungen über deutsche Kartelle."

Periodicals.—The following periodicals, dealing principally with iron and steel, are received currently by the Library:

American Iron and Steel Association, Publications, Philadelphia; American Manufacturer and Iron World, Pittsburg; Bradstreet's, New York; Cassier's Magazine, New York; Colliery Guardian and Journal of the Coal and Iron Trades, London; The Foundry, a trade journal, Cleveland; Industries and Iron, a journal for the engineering, electrical, chemical, and metal trades, London; Industrial World, devoted to the metal, electrical, mining, and allied industries, Pittsburg; Iron Age, a review of hardware, iron, machinery, and metal trades, New York; Iron and Coal Trades Review, London; Iron and Machinery World, Chicago; Iron and Steel Institute Journal, London; Iron and Steel Trades Journal and Colliery Engineer, London; Iron Molders' Journal, Cincinnati; Iron Trade Review, Cleveland; Iron Trades Circular, Birmingham, England (ordered); The Ironmonger, London; Mines and Minerals, a mining and metallurgical journal, Scranton, Pa., and Denver; Pacific Coast Wood and Iron, San Francisco; Page's Weekly, London; Staffordshire Iron and Steel Institute, Proceedings, Brierley-Hill, England; Stahl und Eisen, Düsseldorf; The Statist, London; Verein deutscher Eisen- und Stahl-Industrieller, Berlin.

Bibliography.—Great Britain. Subject list of works on the mineral industries and allied sciences, in the library of the Patent office. London, 1903.
